Arlington Couple Celebrates 58th Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday, December 18, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hathaway, who for the past seven years, have made their home with Mrs. Enid M. MacDonald, at the MacDonald Rest Home, 133 Broadway, Arlington, held open house to their many friends in honor of their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary. Guests were present from Arlington, Winchester, Fall River and Lexington. The couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts, including a substantial purse, as well as hundreds of congratulatory messages. Although confined to their rooms, the couple enjoyed the preparations for the holidays and are taking an active part in the various activities of the home.

Mr. Hathaway is 88 years of age. Previous to his retirement twenty five years ago, he was superintendent of repairs for the Fall River fire department. Both are natives of the latter city, and resided there for many years. Mrs. Hathaway is in her 78th year. Their son Henry H. Hathaway, with his wife and two children, make their home at 15 Allen street, Arlington.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway, Senior, are members of the Calvary Methodist Church, of Arlington.

Warning To Parents!

Chief Archie F. Bullock, of the Arlington Police Department, has issued a warning to all parents, to keep their children off the ice at both Spy Pond and the Heights Reservoir, as neither place is safe for skating at this time. Three children have already narrowly escaped with their lives, but were fortunate enough to be rescued in the nick of time.

The December Pack Meeting was held Friday, December 10 in the auditorium of the Parmenter School. Exhibits of Handicraft from each of the ten dens were in evidence for examination by parents.

This was the annual Christmas with Christmas Carols, presents for all ice cream, cake and more cookies than even these hungry youngsters could clean up.

It was announced that 295 Christmas wreaths had been sold by members of the pack. In this sale, Den 5 is the winner with an average of 9 wreaths per den member, and the individual winners are Byron Roscoe, Jay Smith, and James Snow.

Pack 85 inaugurated the Christmas season at Locke School Auditorium on Friday Night, December 17 Presentation of bobcat pins was made by Cubmaster Frank Loring to the following Cubs: Kenneth Gordon, Michael Luongo, Joseph V. Larkin, Stoddard E. Chaplin, Joseph T. Wixstead, William Goodenough, David

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS AT A MINIMUM

A few skidding accidents marred the serenity of the Christmas scene, but according to the police, none were serious. Automobiles caught without chains, and unable to negotiate the long hills in the Concord-Lexington-Medford area, were in some cases forced to leave their cars by the side of the road throughout Sunday night, without being molested by the understanding police.

A slight mishap occurred to a resident of Arlington, Mrs. Alexandra Gorechenka, 30, 66 May Street, Arlington, who was struck by an automobile at Albany street near Hunnewell street, Roxbury, suffering a possible concussion
and rib fracture.

Arlington Grandmother Wins In Post Contest

One of the recent feminine winners in the popular Boston Post "Last Liner" contest was Mrs. Sara O'Neill, of 31 Kimball road, Arlington, who has seven children and three grandchildren. A lifelong love for poetry and limericks plus a keen sense of humor, doubtless played important roles in Mrs. O'Neill's recent success in writing the successful last line to jingle No. 31. Although the Arlington grandmother has followed the contest since its inception in the Post she revealed that she only actually submitted three entries. Her third effort won the $100. prize.

Mrs. O'Neill's sons and daughters were surprised that their mother had entered the contest. They thought she was too busy to compose limericks, but the gray haired soft spoken woman proved otherwise. She also disclosed that writing poetry for her own relaxation and enjoyment has always been a hobby and source of much comfort to her.

A native of Lynn, Mrs. O'Neill, who has been a resident of this town for the past twenty years, stated that she has greatly enjoyed following the contest. While waiting for her husband, Laurence J. O'Neill, a fuel company executive, to return for lunch, Mrs.

O'Neill found time to read the jingles each day.

A devotee of poetry since her classroom days at St. Mary's School in Lynn, Mrs. O'Neill believes that a genuine sense of humor is a great asset, not only in competing for jingle prizes, but through life in general.

Her greatest interest of course is catering to her three small grandchildren and we presume that the Post prize money played a big part in making Santa extra generous to the three youngsters this year.

Mrs. O'Neill's seven children are: Mrs. Clare Sullivan, of Lexington; Mrs. Bernadette Ritchie, of Lynnfield; the Misses Anne, Margaret and Mary O'Neill, of Arlington; Laurence J. O'Neill, Jr., of Stoneham; and Phillip, of Arlington. Both sons served in World War II. Her grandchildren are Ralph Ritchie, 4; Robert Ritchie, 3, and Laurence J. O'Neill, 3rd who is five years old.

Mrs. O'Neill's prize winning jingle was as follows:

"A hunter out hunting for deer,
Nicked a moose by mistake on the ear:
Sir Moose took one look,
And I swear by the book,
His Disdain for his aim was quite clear."

Local Government Forum Inaugurated

Many Winners In Art Contest

The recent contest sponsored by the Norfolk Paint and Wallpaper Company, and which closed last week, was terminated with a surprise list of more sixty paintings and sketches which were submitted to the Company. All the material submitted was considered of such high standards that the board of judges, selected fourteen of the paintings which they considered worthy of consideration. These latter groups of sketches and paintings attracted much attention in the windows of the Arlington store, at the corner of Massachusetts Avenue and Water Street, during the several days they were on exhibition there.

Winner of the first prize of twenty five dollars was Florence McCarthy, of 33 Kensington park. Her water color "The Red Barn" certainly brought nostalgic memories to many country dwellers and lovers. A pencil sketch by Don Wilson, of 33 Bloomfield street,

Late Shopping Rush Sets Retail Record

Retail sales in Arlington stores this year have passed the record set during the last year's Christmas rush, according to a recent survey. Certain well stocked items have long since disappeared from the shelves of the storekeepers in the terrific last minute rush of buying, and the stocks of most retail stores are being replenished as rapidly as possible.

From indications it would seem that Arlington shoppers this year concentrated on the more practical items, especially was this true in the purchase of toys. The latter of a more durable nature and of more sturdy construction, rather than those of a flimsy construction, built to last only through the short holiday season.

All in all, the majority of storekeepers express themselves as quite pleased with the volume of business placed with them by Arlington shoppers and those of nearby suburban who did their Christmas buying in Arlington stores.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS ENTERTAIN

All patients at the Symmes Arlington Hospital on Christmas Day were able to entertain one guest each at Christmas dinner with them. There were thirty-three patients in the hospital and twenty guest dinners were served. All patients and guests enjoyed a delicious holiday dinner. Mr. Ernest W. Davis president of the Board of Trustees, visited all patients in the house on Christmas Day and extended the Greetings of the Season to all.

Plans For Formation Here Of A Square And Compass Club

Plans are now being consummated for the formation of a Square and Compass Club in Arlington according to an announcement made recently by Bert S. A. Stemark, temporary chairman. Eventually, Mr. Stemark states, the club plans to sponsor a local chapter of DeMolay, which will answer a long felt need here for such an organization. This, however, necessitates a great amount of ground work, and all members of the Craft are cordially invited to join the new Square and Compass Club. The first business meeting of the group will be held at Odd Fellows Hall on January 31, 1949, at which time, permanent officers will be elected and by-laws will be announced by the by-laws committee. Refreshments will follow a social hour. Other temporary officers named for the new organization include Hjalmar Bowlby, secretary, of 47 Magnolia St., and Albert Dyson treasurer.

Facts Pertaining To Summer St. Boulevard

In discussing the widening of Summer street Boulevard, a state highway from Brattle street, Arlington, to the Lexington line, Representative-elect Henry E. Keenan, has pointed out certain facts. According to a map dated September 12, 1916, this highway was taken over by the Massachusetts Highway Commission on the date specified. The highway, as outlined on the map, was to be 50 feet wide, allowing 30 feet of road surface, with 10 feet on each side for sidewalks and curbing. The 50 foot right of way was cut through the location and land damages were paid at the time. However, the road in some places measures only 16 to 18 feet in width for actual paved surface, and sidewalks were never completed along much of this roadway. This highway passes through one of the best residential sections of the town and, since the time of its taking, many substantial homes have been built in the area. Yet its condition is a danger to both children and adults. This highway passes a newly constructed playground at the corner of Forest Street, and passes the Pierce School. This has caused additional hazards, due to this lack of sidewalks and the general condition of the highway. Considerable ledge juts into the roadway between Brattle Street and Forest Street Square. When the highway is ploughed in the winter, the banked snow on either side narrows the roadway to about the width of a car and a half. The additional hazard of ice on the road makes a very dangerous driving condition, and there is little or no space for pedestrians, due to lack of sidewalks.

A glance at this mile and a half of roadway on a map that shows the number of accidents that have happened upon it from 1937 to the present date, reveals that there have been fifty-six. Three of these were fatal; others caused personal injuries or damage to automobiles. These records were furnished by the Chief of Police of Arlington, Archie Bullock, and by Edgar F. Copell, State Traffic Engineer.
